Timely Tidbits ...

Meet the Candidates

The Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a "Meet the Candidates" event at the Marriott Hotel (30559 Flynn Drive) on Thursday, October 12, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Candidates seeking to represent Romulus voters in a number of offices will be on hand to pass out campaign literature and answer questions on an informal basis. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres will be served. A cash bar will also be available.

The event is free and open to the general public.

For more information, call the Chamber at 734-326-4290 or visit www.romuluschamber.org.

Bowling Event Aids Animal Shelter

On Saturday, November 18, Romulus Lanes (located at 37452 West Huron River Drive, just west of Five Points) will host a "Turkey Bonanza No-Tap" bowling event to benefit the Friends of the New Romulus Animal Shelter fund.

The event – which will begin with registration at 4:30 p.m., followed by bowling at 5 p.m. – will cost just $25 per person/per event (handicap singles and doubles), and will feature prizes, door prizes, and pizza.

Space is limited, so advance registration is strongly recommended. For more information, call Romulus Lanes at 734-941-6200.

Wrestling Club Meets

The Romulus Wrestling Club will begin its fourth season with a meeting to be held in the wrestling room at Romulus High School (9650 Wayne Road, north of I-94) on Monday, October 16, at 7:30 p.m. Boys and girls ages five to adult are welcome to join this free club, which will meet three times a week: Mondays from 7:30 to 9, Wednesdays from 6 to 8, and Fridays from 6 to 8 p.m.

High school (folk-style), free-style, and Greco-Roman styles will be taught.

For more info, call head coach Jeff Kelsey at 734-942-6965. □

Eagles' Victory Caps Successful Homecoming Week at RHS

A win over River Rouge was the highlight of Romulus High School's recent Homecoming celebration, which ran from September 18–23.

The week began with a series of spirit events, including dress-up days and a pep rally. Students also voted for underclassmen prince and princess winners, as well as members of the senior Homecoming Court and the Homecoming King and Queen.

Friday's Homecoming Parade, led by Grand Marshals Al and Phyllis Wilkerson, featured participation from students throughout the district. The annual float competition pitted class against class, as each sought to build the best entry in keeping with this year's "Mardi Gras" theme.

The Homecoming Dance, held on Saturday, wrapped up the festivities.

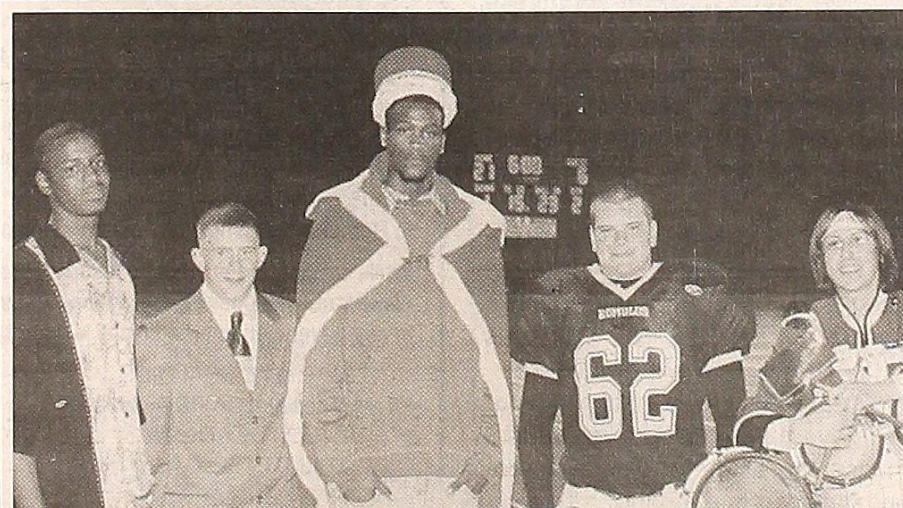

For more photos, see pages 8–9. □

The 2006 Homecoming Queen and King were Ryann Norfleet and Devin Searcy.

RHS Grads Earn Record 60 MEAP Scholarships

Romulus High School's Class of 2006 set a new school record by earning a total of 60 Michigan Merit Scholarships, according to data recently released by the Michigan Department of Education. The 2006 total bests the previous high of 56, set by the Class of 2003.

To receive these scholarships, students had to score in LEVEL I (exceeds Michigan standards) or LEVEL II (meets state standards) on Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) tests in mathematics, science, reading, and writing. Members of the Class of 2006 were permitted to retake the tests several times, if necessary, during their senior year.

Because the retests can be taken as late as April, final data is not available by the end of the school year, and is usually released the following fall.

Congratulations to all. □

Mayor's Veracity Disputed

To the Editor:

In his September 22, 2006 "Letter to the Editor" (Volume 20, Number 5), Mayor Alan Lambert stated, "Mr. Clark ... once again has been given bad information." Was I given bad information about his $10,000 raise? Was I given bad information about his personal use of a City vehicle at a gas reimbursement rate of only $.055 (five and a half cents) per mile? He is the first mayor in Romulus history to drive a City vehicle for personal use. Was I given wrong information about his large increases in MERS (Municipal Employees' Retirement System) cost? Was I given wrong information on the 20% raises for salaried employees?

Mayor Lambert wants me to believe that, when his negotiating team explored the possibility of outsourcing several union jobs, he had no knowledge of it. I really think he's stretching the truth quite a bit. It's hard to believe that issues weren't weighed before they were presented to the Teamsters local. Does he mean that his administration has the authority to send a letter to the Teamsters regarding contracting janitorial services before checking with him? Does he mean that they have the authority to pick the four buildings (Court, Recreation Center, Senior Center, and Police Department) that would be affected by the switch to nonunion contractor janitorial services before checking with him?

Mayor Lambert stated that he's hired union police officers and firefighters, but those are automatically union positions. It looks like the administration was picking on the DPW's blue-collar workers for jobs to eliminate. It looks like, every time Mayor Lambert gets caught with his hand in the cookie jar, he wants to say it's not his hand, or he didn't know about it. It appears that he likes playing good cop/bad cop, and he's the good cop. He always wants to use somebody else for a scapegoat when he gets caught making bad decisions.

The Police Department has MERS retirement. The Fire Department has MERS retirement. The 34th District Court has MERS retirement. The only union City employees who don't have MERS retirement are the hourly blue-collar union workers. They would love to have the same opportunity to have MERS retirement. I'm mentioning this in case he didn't know, as it appears that his administration doesn't always keep him informed. Oh, yes ... and the Mayor has MERS.

I really believe that the only reason the Mayor decided to keep union janitor jobs is because the issue was brought to the public's attention, and he was afraid of losing the union voters. Mayor Lambert can fool some of the people some of the time, but he can't fool all of the people all of the time.

John Clark

Teen Court Draws Praise

Dear Editor:

I'm writing in response to the article in The Romulus News (September 22, 2006/Volume 20, Number 5) about the Romulus Board of Education's approval of district participation in the Wayne County Prosecutor's Teen Court program, which will be implemented by the 34th District Court in Romulus. I've been a resident here for one year, and I'm pleased to see that our local government's efforts to strengthen our diverse community are consistent and effective.

The Teen Court program is a wonderful community-building tool that will educate teens and adults on the State's judicial processes, which include jury participation requirements and the application of the law to various issues. Its alternative approach to addressing these issues will assist community family units in communicating with each other and accepting accountability in monitoring teens' actions while in the neighborhoods, attending school, and participating in various community activities.

I believe that the Teen Court program will spark a diverse legal interest among teens, giving them the incentive to participate in more legal programs and perhaps pursue a legal career.

It's refreshing to see that when our local government offices implement enhancements, they project the profound statement that enhancing the community is their primary focus.

Around the City

The Belleville/Romulus CROP Walk, held on October 1, drew hundreds of people – including those pictured above – who traversed the 6.2-mile route from Community United Methodist Church in Romulus to Trinity Episcopal Church in Belleville. The annual interfaith event raised money for food pantries in local neighborhoods and around the world.

CROP Walkers from Community United Methodist included Shirley Hurt of Romulus (right), whose young friend Conner Currey (left) was the youngest participant. CUMC alone raised over $1,000, with more pledges still to come.

Kourtnee Oliver (above) was one of many children fingerprinted by Romulus Police Officers D.H. Smith and Donald Krol during a Kids Day program sponsored by Dr. Jeremiah Shaft of True Health Chiropractic on September 23.

The Romulus Red Hat Society held its 1st Annual Fashion Show at the Romulus Senior Center on September 8. Among the 85 people who attended were (from left) Burt Valentine, Mary Whitaker, Joann Hewitt (Red Hat Society chair), 34th District Court Judge Tina Brooks Green (who wore a pink hat, rather than red, because she doesn't meet the minimum age requirement of 50 years), Pat Noblett, Kathleen Dowdell (Fashion Show chair), and Barbara Underwood (mistress of ceremonies).

RHS Homecoming 2006

Honorary Grand Marshals of Romulus High School's 2006 Homecoming Parade were recent retirees Al Wilkerson, former principal of Community High School, and his wife Phyllis, a former teacher at RHS.

Cory Elementary students had a great time participating in the parade and getting a taste of the fun that they'll have as future RHS students.

The cheerleaders at Romulus Middle School had an excellent routine prepared for the parade.

Romulus High School's cheerleaders did an outstanding job of getting onlookers into the Homecoming spirit at both the parade and the game that followed.

RHS Homecoming 2006

The RHS Marching Eagles did an outstanding job in the parade and the football game's halftime show.

The trumpet section of the Romulus Middle School Band played a big part in that group's fine performance.

The seniors didn't win the float competition, but still took the Spirit Jug.

The sophomores worked hard on their float.

Coming in second in the float competition were the juniors.

The freshman float was judged the winner.

Raises $500 for Ed Horn Family Trust

Romulus Middle School principal Phyllis Adkins (second from right) proudly held the Romulus Masters trophy that she and the rest of her team (from left: Dan McCabe, Keith Brothers, and Brian Wietfeld) won with a 6-under-par 30 at the Harbour Club in Belleville. The event raised over $500 for the Ed Horn Family Trust.

The second annual Romulus Masters Golf Tournament was held on September 22 at the Harbour Club in Belleville. The event - in which 10 teams/40 golfers from the Romulus Community Schools vied for trophy rights for 2006-2007 - also raised money for the family of the late Ed Horn, the district's former Technology Department director.

Tournament chair Keith Brothers, a physical-education teacher at Romulus Middle School, said, "We were happy to see an increase in participants over last year, and pleased to present Kelley Horn, Ed's wife, with a $500 donation."

RHS Student Teachers Have Impressive Credentials

Dick Kruse, spokesperson for the Romulus Community Schools, says that Romulus High School is very fortunate to have 13 highly credentialed student teachers this year. Of the 13, 11 are from the University of Michigan's MAC (Master of Arts with Certification) program that enables students with a degree in another field to become certified teachers in one calendar year.

"I was impressed with the well-rounded backgrounds of the student teachers," said Kruse. "Eleven of them were members of their high school National Honor Society chapters, 10 played on athletic teams, and 6 performed in their school band/choir program. The group additionally includes an organic chemist, an editor at McGraw-Hill, a high school valedictorian, a yearbook editor, a senior class president, and a college cheerleader."

Kruse noted that the district has a history of hosting teacher interns from state universities like UM, Eastern, and Western, to the benefit of all.

"These student teachers have served as positive role models for our students, and often inspired them to explore careers in education," he stated.
